Disk Hero Announces Winner of “Disk Hero is My Hero” Contest

Dublin, CA, December 4, 2007 – The Grand Prize winner of the “Disk Hero is My Hero” contest is David Bienstock of Corona, California. His entry showed how the Disk Hero automatic backup service can help in a situation a little different than a typical data loss recovery.

David hadn't actually lost any information; he just had an unexpected need to get to his data. The story as he tells it is ...

“I was at a location that had a wonderful job opportunity and I was driving the wife's car. I did not have a resume, but... oh, wait... I do have my stuff online from my last DiskHero backup... DiskHero was a hero... and may be my job savior!”

David is a Systems Analyst, living in Corona, CA with his wife Julia and their 7 ½ month old son, Andrew.

David “discovered” Disk Hero after buying a U3 Flash Drive and downloading Disk Hero's free backup package. After checking it out (as a systems analyst would), he decided to get the Disk Hero PC version and backup his 13+GB of data.

His Grand Prize is one free year of unlimited backup at Disk Hero.
